2017 Q3 Highlights

- Operating income slightly down, partly explained by high raw material costs.
- Table Top with growth in majority of the markets. Germany continue to show a positive development.
- Historically high cost for plastics prices and delivery issues triggered a weak quarter for Meal Service.
- Relative good quarter for many markets in Consumer, but weak development in Switzerland, Norway and Finland having negative mix effect on gross margin.
- Asia and Oceania growing with double digit levels, but challenges in Middle East remains. Focus to optimize flows from Europe to Asia and strengthen organization in APAC region.
- Price increases almost fully implemented during the quarter which partly mitigated record high costs for input material in particular in Meal Service.
- Net sales SEK 1082 m (1 064)
- Operating income SEK 123 m (136)
- Operating margin 11.4\% (12.8\%)

Table Top

Germany continues to develop positively

Table Top

[^0]Q3, 2017

- Marginally positive growth measured as sales per day.
- Premium napkins together with LED candles driving the growth.
- South region boosted by strong tourist season.
- UK successful in securing additional business, however with lower gross margin due to weaker British pound.
- Price increases now fully implemented.

Meal Service

Quarter influenced by high costs for raw materials

SALES & OPERATING MARGIN ${ }^{1)}$

NET SALES, SEK m

[^1]Q3, 2017

- Weak quarter with lower sales growth vs. previous quarters and decline in profit.
- Sales of machines for food packaging significantly down in the quarter. This together with lower sales of standard products main reason for weak quarter.
- Environmentally conscious materials the most important contributor for growth. Duni strengthens its market position.

Consumer

Generally stable quarter, but negative mix effects

Consumer

Q 3, 2017

- Trend of higher share of logistic cost driven by more complex demands from customers.
- Design cooperation with Bernadotte & Kylberg with new launch of Amazonica an iconic, eco-conscious collection.
- Positive feedback from customers on seasonal assortment.

[^2]

New Markets

Focus on strengthening the organization

New Markets

- Focus on optimizing the flows from production units in Europe and APAC region to maximize customer offer at lowest cost.
- Investment in strengthening of the organization key activity for long term profitable growth and securing business opportunities.
